

How to share Media file via Router?

It is suitable for: A5004NS

Application introduction:

The A5004NS provides a USB 3.0 port that supports Media Server to make Media file sharing easier.

STEP-1:

Log into the Web page, choose Advanced Setup ->USB Storage ->Service Setup. Click Media Serve.

Config Explorer	Service Setup)
Basic Setup Status Summary Internet Setup Vireless Setup(2.40Hz) Vireless Setup(50Hz) Firmware Upgrade Advanced Setup Naturation	FTP Service Windows File Shi Torrent Media Server URL Service USB Tethering	FTP Service Windows File Sharing(SAMBA) Torrent Media Server URL Service USB Tethering		ftp:0192.168.1.1
Image Reenfork Image Re
Utility Traffic Massard System USB Storage	Service Server Name	O Start	Stop
Device Mgmt Service Setup Connected User	Media Folder Media DB Folder			Update Media DB manually
					Apply

STEP-2:

The Media Server page will show up below and please choose Start to enable the service. Then enter the Server Name, Media folder, click Apply.

Media Server
Service Server Name	⊙ Start	Os	itop	_
Media Folder	Select Medi	a Folder		~
Media DB Folder	 No Media DE	- No Media DB file.			Update I	te Media DE	3 manually
									Appl